Answer Key

1. B) No entry — A red circle with a horizontal white bar is the universal No Entry sign.
2. B) Traffic fine or license suspension — Prohibition sign violations result in fines and potential license points.
3. C) Hospital ahead — Hospital ahead is an information sign (blue), not a prohibition sign (red).
4. B) Tell drivers what NOT to do — Prohibition signs enforce traffic rules by forbidding dangerous or illegal actions.
5. This is a No Entry sign. Drivers cannot pass through. Violators are subject to fines.
6. This is a speed limit sign. You must reduce speed to 50 km/h or mph. Exceeding the limit results in a fine.
7. This is a No U-Turn sign. You cannot turn your vehicle around at this location. Violating it results in a traffic violation.
8. Red circle with white background. The red tells drivers to stop or restrict their action.
9. It forbids a specific action — no entry, no parking, no U-turn, speed limits, no honking.
10. Traffic fines, license points, or legal penalties depending on the severity.
