10. Define: Name five clothing items.

Answer Key

1. B) A piece of clothing — A garment is any piece of clothing you wear.
2. B) How well it suits your body — Fit describes how well clothes match your size and shape.
3. C) Pants — Pants are a garment covering both legs.
4. B) A price reduction — A discount is a reduction in price — paying less than the original cost.
5. I'm wearing a blue shirt (a light garment for the upper body), black pants (a long garment covering both legs), and white shoes (foot covering). The shirt fits well (is comfortable and suits my body).
6. In a shop, I would ask: 'What is the price?' (How much does it cost?), 'Do you have this in size medium?' (my clothing size), and 'Can I try it on?' (wear it briefly to check the fit).
7. The red dress is more expensive (costs more money), but the blue dress has a better fit (feels more comfortable). I might ask for a discount (price reduction) on the expensive one.
8. A piece of clothing — an item you wear, like a shirt, pants, or dress.
9. How well a garment matches your body size and shape; how comfortable it is.
10. Shirt, pants, jacket, dress, shoes. (Also: socks, hat, scarf, sweater.)
