Answer Key

1. C) private car — A private car is not public transport. All others are used by many people.
2. A) bus — A bus or train is best for long distances between cities.
3. A) underground — British English uses 'underground' or 'the Tube'.
4. B) car — We say 'by car' (not 'by a car' or 'by the car').
5. I took the bus to school. Or: I came by car. Or: I travelled by train.
6. How do you get to work? — I take the subway. Do you drive? — No, I prefer the train.
7. Answer: taxi or car or bus. Common answer: I'm going to the airport by taxi.
8. A large vehicle that carries many passengers on a fixed route.
9. Trains run on railway lines between cities; trams run on street tracks within towns.
10. Buses, trains, trams, and metros — transport open to the public.
