

What is Travel and Transportation?

Worksheet

Travel is moving from one place to another; transportation is the system of vehicles and infrastructure enabling that movement. Both are central to mobility and commerce.

Questions

1. What is the key difference between travel and transportation?

- A) Travel is the act; transportation is the system enabling it
- B) They mean exactly the same
- C) Travel uses money; transportation does not
- D) Transportation only happens by car

2. In French, 'avion' refers to...

- A) A train
- B) An airplane
- C) A boat
- D) A bicycle

3. What does 'gare' mean?

- A) A parking lot
- B) A highway
- C) A station (train or bus)
- D) A car rental

4. Which requires transportation infrastructure?

- A) Walking across the room
- B) Traveling 100 km to another city
- C) Moving a chair
- D) None of the above

5. Define: What does travel mean?

6. Define: Define transportation.

7. Define: French word for 'journey' or 'trip'?

Answer Key

1. A) Travel is the act; transportation is the system enabling it — Travel is movement; transportation is the infrastructure/vehicles making movement possible.
2. B) An airplane — 'Avion' is the French word for airplane.
3. C) A station (train or bus) — 'Gare' is a station — 'gare ferroviaire' for train, 'gare routière' for bus.
4. B) Traveling 100 km to another city — Long-distance travel relies on roads, rails, or airports — transportation infrastructure.
5. Moving from one location or place to another.
6. The system of vehicles and infrastructure that enables movement between places.
7. Voyage (journey/trip) or trajéc (route/trajectory).

Bounlu

All cards, step-by-step solutions and an AI tutor are in the Notek app.
Promy turns exam dates into automatic reminders.