2. B) The audience was cheering loudly. — 'Audience' is typically treated as a singular noun in American English when it acts as a single unit. Therefore, 'was cheering' is correct.
3. A) is — 'Family' can be singular or plural depending on context. Here, it refers to the family as a single unit planning the vacation, so the singular verb 'is' is appropriate.
4. 1. Identify the subject: 'The committee'. 2. Determine if the committee is acting as a single unit or as individuals. In this case, they are making a decision together, so it's a single unit. 3. Use a singular verb. (A) The committee make their final decision next week. (B) The committee makes its final decision next week. Correct answer is (B) because 'committee' is acting as a singular unit.
5. 1. Subject: 'The jury'. 2. Context: The jury is acting as a single body to reach a verdict. 3. Verb: Needs to be singular. Possible verbs: has reached, have reached. Correct answer: has reached. ('The jury has reached to reach a verdict...')
